

Giles, Elvin C.
Susie

444 So. Main

18 Nov 1955

Last Thursday evening the Missionary Mothers met at the home of Susie Giles with Margaret Felt, Beth Sweat and Arlene North as hostesses. As special guests they had the members of the Stake Presidency and wives.

80th Birthday

Elvin Giles

¹⁹⁸⁹ Elvin Giles observed his 80th birthday Tuesday, April 18. Elvin was born to Noah Giles and Maria Christensen Giles in the house on the lot where he still lives. He spent his life teaching school 41 years. Thirty-two of which he was principal of the Central School.

He loves gardening and watching things grow. He also enjoys basketball and football.

He married Susie Holladay, of Circleville, in the Manti Temple, whom he met while attending Snow College, following his first mission to the Eastern States.

They are the parents of two boys, both teachers. Glade, who married Marilyn Johnston, parents of four boys, Dirk, Randy, David, and James, who is serving a mission in Mississippi; Glade and wife teach in Alpine School District; Gary, who married Vera Jean Adams, teaches at SUSC in Cedar City in business and accounting. They are the parents of seven children, Bradley, Dana, Lara Lynn, Candace, Derek, Jennifer, and Nathan.

Elvin and his wife served a mission to Arkansas in 1975-77. They have been workers in the Provo Temple. He has three sisters, Geniel Winterton, Donna Coleman, LaRue Adamson, and one brother, Clarence, of Mesa, AZ.

He retired from the Wasatch School District in 1974. Has spent most of his life in Heber City, which he loves, and has enjoyed traveling.

